Marvin L. Atkins, 70, Retired CIA Employee

NORTH ARLINGTON — Funeral services will be held Monday in Lyndhurst for Marvin L. Atkins, a former resident of this borough. Mr. Atkins, 70, died Thursday in the Coral Gables, Fla., Veterans Administration Hospital following an illness. He was a retired employee of the Central Intelligence Agency. Born in Salisbury, Conn., he had resided 30 years in that town before moving to Brooklyn and later to this borough. He moved to Florida 10 years ago, making his home in Fort Lauderdale.

Mr. Atkins was a member of the Williams-Parsons Post, 70, American Legion, Salisbury, and the Disabled American Veterans Post in Fort Lauderdale. A veteran of World War I, he had been a captain in the 27th Field Artillery Reserve of the 71st Regiment, New York. He was also a member of Montgomery Lodge, 13, F&AM, Lakeside, Conn.

Surviving are his wife, Mrs. Alice Emmerson Atkins; a son, Herbert of Long Island; a daughter, Mrs. Harry (Ellen) Bosserman of Leonardo; seven grandchildren, eight great-grandchildren, a sister, Mrs. Lillian Britton of Salisbury and four brothers, Henry, Sidney and Leon, all of Salisbury and Bill of Brooklyn.
